Little Bo-Peep has lost
her sheep,
And can't tell where to find them.
Leave them alone,
And they'll come home,
And bring their tails behind them.

Little Bo-Peep fell fast asleep,
And dreamed she heard them bleating.
But when she awoke,
She found it a joke,
For they were all a-fleeting.

Then she took her little cane, Determined that she would find them.

She found them indeed,
But it made her heart bleed,
For they'd left their tails behind them.

It happened one day, as Bo-peep did stray
Into a meadow hard by,
There she spied their tails
side by side,
All hung on a tree to dry.

She heaved a sigh and wiped her eye,
And over the hillocks went race.
And tried what she could,
As a shepherdess should,
To stitch again each to its place.
